

WELCOME to the WSSCB Broadcast Bulletin

1. Multi-Agency & CSE Workshops

The WSSCB is delivering a series of workshops to let you know about the new Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub arrangements, and the West Sussex approach to tackling CSE. These are key workshops for managers and practitioners. Find out how to book here. The workshops are in venues across West Sussex and are first come first served, so we recommend you book early to get the workshop you want!

2. Serious Case Review: Liam

Brighton and Hove LSCB have recently published a Serious Case Review which included learning for agencies in West Sussex. The final report and Board responses can be found here.

3. New ways of working for the Board

The WSSCB is responsible for ensuring the effectiveness of safeguarding in West Sussex. We've been carrying out improvement work to make sure we are doing this as effectively as possible. This includes a new structure to the Board and new ways of working. You can find out new structure here. More details to follow!

4. Learning and Improvement

A new WSSCB Learning and Improvement Framework has been developed to support a culture of continuous learning across agencies working to safeguard children.

5. Serious Case Review Procedure and Process Flow

Would you recognise when a case might meet the criteria for a serious case review? Do you know how cases get to be reviewed? The WSSCB have developed a new Serious Case Review process which outlines when, why and how Serious Case Reviews are carried out in West Sussex. You can find the Procedure and Process Flow here.

6. Pan Sussex Procedures Provider

The online Procedures website has a new home! Click here to find out more.
